What's Imperial Session ?

The Imperial Court, Daughters convenes annually at the same time and place as the annual meeting of the Imperial Council, AEAONMS. Daughters who plan to attend Imperial Session are encouraged to register in advance. A copy of the Housing and Registration Form should be completed and mailed with the appropriate fees to the Imperial Convention Department (address indicated on the form). Daughters who do not choose to pre-register, may do so at the convention at an increased rate.

The registration badge grants free admission to most activities held during the session. Tickets to special events may either be ordered through the constituent courts or purchased at the convention site. Reference: (Administrative Manual)

Representation for Constituent Court at Imperial Court

Each chartered court is entitled to three (3) representatives:

1. Illustrious Commandress
2. First Lieutenant Comandress
3. Second Lieutenant Commandress

Each of whom shall have one vote.

If the Illustrious Commandress is present and one of the Lieutenant Commandresses is absent, the Illustrious Commandress shall have two (2) votes. Further, where only one (1) is present, she will cast the three (3) votes for the Court. (ARTICLE IX Part III Section 8; page 19)

Proxy for Imperial Session

What is a Proxy vote ?

Proxy voting is a form of voting whereby a member of a decision-making body may delegate his or her voting power to a representative, to enable a vote in absence. The representative may be another member of the same body.

- ▶ Should be elected by the Court if neither of the three named officers will not be in attendance.
- ▶ It is also a good idea to have a proxy as a backup in case of the Illustrious Commandress's failure to appear at Imperial Session due to an emergency.
- ▶ She shall receive an appointment for her certificate of her appointment signed by the Illustrious Commandress and Recordress, with seal of the court affixed.

Voting Credentials

- ▶ All Daughters who are eligible to vote must report to the Credentials Committee.
- ▶ Each court representative must have a credentials form and paid-up dues card, signed by the Illustrious Commandress and Recordress with the seal of the court affixed.
- ▶ Past Commandresses must present their identification card and a paid-up dues card, signed by the Recordress of the court.
- ▶ The signature of the Illustrious Recorder from the temple cannot be accepted by the Daughters of **** Committee on Credentials.
