

Nabbar Court No. 123 ~ Oasis of Atlanta ~ Desert of Georgia

“Restart...Rethink...Refocus...Navigating the Future with the Past in Hand”

December 2016 - Volume 1 / Issue 2

Greetings:

What an amazing year we have had, another year is almost over. We have done it together and for that I say thank you Daughters of Nabbar.

I feel so honored to have served as your 38th Illustrious Commandress for the year 2016. You have made this year fantastic with your support of the community providing a full course meal with an over flow of citizens at the Adamsville Center; partnered with the Temple in providing over 350 filled book bags; registering over 250 and still counting Citizen to be registered voters; supporting the seniors at the nursing home bringing joy to them; being excited about attending the meetings; supporting the Desert, the Youth Group and our Queen, Dt. Northern in raising over 10,000 to support scholarships for our youth and supporting everything we have put before you this year just to name a few. I can't say enough about the ball it was one for history and I am still on high because of all of you and standing ovation to Illustrious Potentate Patrick Cook of Nabbar Temple.

Daughters of Nabbar, you have shown how finer women work. This is evident by the accomplishments we have achieved this year and I know you will continue to go higher. I feel so proud to be in the mist of you all. I want to thank the Past Commandress Council for your support and Deputy Susan Gibson, I can't say enough about how you continue to inspire us when you bring the line officer training knowledge to us every month.

Daughters of Nabbar I can't say thank you enough, I love you all and with my saying, you already know, 2016 WE READY.

Dt. Cynthia Lee
38th Illustrious Commandress 2016

Greetings Daughters:

A great African-American philosopher, Benjamin E. Mays stated “Whatever one touches, ones aim should be to leave that which he touches better than he found it.” I find this quote to be indicative of the spirit of excellence conveyed in every endeavor taken on by the daughters of Nabbar Court No. 123. We have made many accomplishments this year as we do not settle for mediocrity. Our Court has received honors on both the Desert and Imperial levels; and many daughters consistently receive recognition, not only on the Desert and Imperial levels, but, within the Oasis of Atlanta as leaders and role models in our communities.

Congratulations to each of you for your achievements! Thank you for your ongoing unwavering support, hard work, loyalty and dedication to our cause. We are truly finer women of Nabbar Court No. 123 because as we pass by, all those around will stop, look, listen and say...“Shhhhh! Nabbar’s Coming!”

Susan W. Gibson

Imperial Deputy of the Oasis
Past Illustrious Commandress 2008

The Newsletter Committee for 2016 would like to express our gratitude and much love to HPC Verlyn Smith and other daughters for providing photos for the two issues of the Nabbar Post Newsletter.

COMMUNITY SERVICE & VOTER REGISTRATION

Written By Dt. Pam Northern

Our Community Service committee has been hard at work this year. They have participated in numerous community service projects throughout the year.

March 2016 - the community service committee went to AG Rhodes, played Bingo with the residents and passed out Easter Baskets. They also gave out over $60 in Bingo Bucks. The residents had a great time. The following daughters were in attendance: PC Cheryl Thomas, PC Thelma Ingram, HPC Rita Esters, HPC JC Jefferson, and Dts. Cynthia Lee, Deborah Muhammad, Yolanda Williams, Katrina Williams and Shirley Cunningham.

April 2016 - hosted a Community Breakfast at Adamsville Recreation Center. They offered HIV screening, played bingo with the community residents and gave out over $200 in Bingo prizes and over $180 in bingo bucks. The community residents enjoyed the breakfast prepared by the committee and enjoyed the music played by the DJ. A great time was had by all. The following daughters were in attendance: PC Mable Ray, PC Susan Gibson and Dts. Monica Malcolm, JC Jefferson, Kiema Mosley, Shirley Cunningham, Cynthia Lee, Donna Cook, Yolanda Williams, Monica Jacks, Timolin Jefferson, Katrina Williams, Charlotte Banks, Rosa Weston and Deborah Muhammad.

Dt. Williams and Dt. Hill went to Habitat for Humanity and received preliminary training and orientation to work in the store and build houses.

May 2016 - Dt. Yolanda Williams and Dt. Tamicka Jones walked in the Autism Walk. The community service committee sponsored an End of School and Graduation Cookout/Party for the Carrie Steele-Pitts Foster Home. They provided all of the food for the party. The following daughters were in attendance: Dts. Donna Cook, Yolanda Williams, Darlene Key, Karyn Bailey and Monica Malcolm.

June 2016 - the community service committee joined Nabbar Temple No. 128 at the VA Medical's Eagles Nest. They played bingo, passed out canteen bucks and snacks to the veterans. The following daughters were in attendance: HPC Sharon Lane and Dts. Shirley Cunningham, Arnese Foster and Yolanda Williams.

In addition to all of the great hands-on service that the community service committee provides they also donate snacks weekly to the Adamsville Recreation Center to be used during the Senior Citizens Bingo Night.

If you have not participated in any community service projects with Nabbar Court this year please consider doing so. Please contact Dt. Yolanda Williams (Chair) if you are interested. She would love to have you in attendance. Hats off to Dt. Williams and the committee for doing such a great job this year serving our community.

VOTER REGISTRATION

Did you know that in the United States, voter registration is the responsibility of the people, and only 70 percent of Americans who are eligible to vote are actually registered? As an organization we must be committed to reaching the remaining 30 percent. We must encourage others to get involved and become an active voice in our democracy. As registered voters we must register others and start exercising our right to make a difference. As you know, this year is a big election year because the United States Presidential Election is scheduled for Tuesday, November 8, 2016. Our Voter Registration Drive committee has certainly done their part in ensuring that we get more people registered to vote.

They held their 1st Voter Registration Drive at Benjamin E. Mays High School on March 21st, 11:00 am-1:30 pm. They registered 78 students. The following daughters were in attendance: HPC White, Dts. Maupins, Malcom, Welch and Northern.

Their 2nd Voter Registration Drive was at KIPP Atlanta Collegiate High School on April 21st, 11:00 am - 2:00 pm. They registered 35 students. The following daughters were in attendance: HPC Lane, Dts. Hill, McWhorter, Malcom, Northern and Timolin Jefferson.

They held a Voter Registration Drive and Get Out to Vote Rally at Greenbriar Mall on Friday, May 20th. They registered 13 people, passed out information on all of the remaining voting dates in 2016, distributed absentee ballot applications and instructions on how to operate the electronic voting booth. They also encouraged people to go out and vote on Election Day. The following daughters were in attendance: PC Scott, HPC White, HPC Lane, Dts. Katrina Williams, Malcom, McElrath and Northern.

Their next Voter Registration Drive was on June 25th, 12:00 noon until 2:00 pm at the Walgreens in Lithonia. They registered 12 people, passed out information on all of the remaining voting dates in 2016, and distributed absentee ballot applications. The following daughters were in attendance: Dt. Welch and Dt. Veronica Cook.

The last Voter Registration Drive of the year was on August 22nd at Clark Atlanta University. They registered 13 students. They also passed out information on all of the remaining voting dates in 2016, provided brochures on Georgia Voter ID requirements as well as passed out brochures with instructions on how to operate the electronic touch screen voting booth. In addition, they answered a lot of questions that students had about the voting process and they highly encouraged them to exercise their right to vote, especially on November 8th. The following daughters were in attendance: HPC Lane, Dt. Burkhalter and Dt. Northern.

Since January, the Voter Registration Committee has held 4 Voter Registration Drives and one Get Out to Vote Rally. They registered 151 people this year. In addition, in March, they congratulated and welcomed their newest Fulton County Deputy Registrars Dts. Katrina Williams and Charlene Maupins. Dt. Pam M. Northern was re-certified as a Deputy Registrar.

Daughters, Tuesday, November 8th will be one of the most defining moments in US electoral history following the election of the nation's first African-American president, Barack Obama. We cannot emphasize enough how vital these elections are. There is a lot at stake. This election season will feature races on the federal, state, and local levels. The nation will vote for the next President of the United States, 34 seats in the US Senate, and all 435 seats in the US House of Representatives. Voting is our right, our job, our civic responsibility and our obligation.

Please exercise your right to Vote on November 8th!! We leave you with this quote by Dr. Dorothy Irene Height: "As we move forward, let us also look back. So long as we remember those who died for our right to vote and those who built empires where there were none, we will walk into the future with unity and strength."

THANKSGIVING SERVICES &/ FEAST

Written By Dt. Treasa Dumas-Jackson

Nabbar Court No. 123 held its annual Thanksgiving Services and Feast at Central United Methodist Church (501 Mitchell Street, SW, Atlanta, GA) on Sunday, May 15, 2016. The Committee did an amazing job in planning this event and their hard work showed through the large number of Daughters, Nobles and guests in attendance. As always Nabbar Court did an excellent job and the vision implemented by the Illustrious Commandress, Dt. Cynthia Lee, was exhibited with elegance.

Nabbar Court No. 123 had a total of 51 members, with 2 Daughters visiting from other Deserts; Illustrious Potentate Patrick Cook and the Nobles of Nabbar Temple No. 128 showed their support with 24 Nobles and there were several guests in attendance. Members of Nabbar Court No. 123 were beautifully regaled with smiles on their faces as they entered the Sanctuary, led by the Past Commandresses and Divan.

We enjoyed musical selections rendered by Nabbar Court's Dorothy J. Jackson Chantresses, and we were fed spiritually as Evangelist, Kisha Greene, of Greater Victory Christian Center gave us words of thanksgiving with her topic "Restart, Rethink, Refocus". Everyone in attendance was in awe and the spirit started to fill the room.

After giving thanks for all the many blessings bestowed upon us, a feast fit for a goddess was prepared and we were fed physically. Dt. Katrina Williams and her committee planned the menu around the traditional Daughters of Isis feast. The fellowship hall of the church was extravagantly decorated with Egyptian art and sculptures. Nabbar Court No. 123 continues to excel and the 2016 Thanksgiving Service and Feast was overall magnificent.

We have SOULThat 70s Party

Written by Dt. Timolin Jefferson

“That 70s Show” doesn’t have nothing on Nabbar Court No. 1-2-3 when it comes to dancing the night away in our soul sister and brother disco wear. If you didn’t attend the party...you missed a special treat! Nabbar Court No. 123 showed up and showed out! We had a full house and the committee worked diligently to put on a fun filled evening.

Nabbar Court No. 123, “That’s 70s Party” was held on February 20, 2016 at the Prince Hall Grand East on Old National Hwy. It was truly a blast from the past with a room filled with afros, bell bottoms, platform shoes, and flashy disco gear.

It was a packed house and it was great seeing everyone get into character and dance the night away to the groovy sounds of mixed music from the 70s and 80s. The decorations were stunning as the colorful tables glowed with vibrant colors that lit up the room.

The rhythm was groovy as we had our contest that highlighted the best dressed, the best couple and the best individual dancer who all received trophies for their participation.

The success of the “That 70s Party” is contributed to the commitment of all the Daughters of Nabbar Court No. 123 who sold tickets to the event and attended. What a fantastic way to kick of the New Year with the Daughters of Nabbar Court No. 123, friends and family to have a great time. The dedication to this effort was outstanding! Thank you Nabbar Court for all you do!

We jammed the night away with music from Noble Freeman. It was a warm and inviting scene as you walked in the room with disco balls and decorations that illuminated the room.

We are looking forward to seeing each of you at our 2017 event.

We've Got Talent 1-2-3
Nabbar Court No. 123 Education through Excellence
 Written by Dt. Timolin Jefferson

We've Got Talent 1-2-3 and then there were 4 beautiful stars who displayed their graceful talents in Nabbar Court No. 123 Annual Talent & Scholarship Pageant held at 4:00 p.m. on April 30, 2016 at KIPP Atlanta Collegiate High School, 98 Anderson Ave. NW in Atlanta, Georgia. The auditorium was decorated beautifully with candy apple red that illuminated the room with rays of love. It was a great scholarly day!

The Talent & Scholarship Pageant allows Nabbar Court No. 123 to celebrate our youth and to provide scholarships to deserving young ladies, who are high school seniors, as they pursue their aspirations in higher education. It was truly a day to remember with four beautiful young ladies displaying courage and confidence to showcase their talents and intellect on a stage in front of an audience.

The contestants were Mya Morgan (KIPP Atlanta Collegiate), Chyna Thomas (KIPP Atlanta Collegiate), Mariah Truitt (Woodland High School) and Keyana Williams (KIPP Atlanta Collegiate). The young ladies were simply beautiful as our Mistress of Ceremonies, Dt. Sharon Lane, HPC, entertained our guest with descriptive words of encouragement throughout the pageant as the contestants demonstrated their excellence through poise, charm, talents and intellectual functioning. The judges had a hard decision to make with these young scholars and the competition was tough. The young ladies were all beautiful and represented their schools very well. We also enjoyed several musical selections from the Sound of Royalty Jazz Band throughout the afternoon with great excitement and enthusiasm for entertainment.

The time had drew near to select our 2016 Miss Nabbar Court No. 123, the Deputy for the Oasis of Atlanta, Dt. Susan Gibson, PC, gave her charge to the contestants and Miss Nabbar Court No. 123 was revealed. Winners were 4th place - Keyana Williams, 3rd place - Mya Morgan, 2nd place - Chyna Thomas. Our 2016 Miss Nabbar Court is Mariah Truitt! Our Miss Nabbar Court No. 123, Mariah Truitt, unfortunately was unable to represent us at Georgia Desert Conference in Macon, GA due to her graduation being held on the same day. However, the 2nd place winner, Chyna Thomas, graciously agreed to represent us. It was truly a day of love and accomplishment to see our youth as they displayed excellence through education.

Thank you to Dt. Moira Pratt (Co-Chair), Dt. Susan Gibson, PC (Advisor) and the Talent & Scholarship Committee for a great program!!! Thank you to Nabbar Court No. 123, Nabbar Temple No. 128, Sounds of Royalty Jazz Band, KIPP Atlanta Collegiate High School and all who contributed financially to the well-deserved scholarships.

2016 Joint Potentate & Commandress Ball “Elegance on the Nile”

Written by Dt. Treasa Dumas-Jackson

On July 15, 2016, the Daughters of Nabbar Court No. 123, along with the Nobles of Nabbar Temple No. 128 welcomed family, friends, Nobles and Daughters from near and far to our “Elegance on the Nile”. The “Welcome to HOTLanta” Committee graciously greeted guests as they arrived at the Sheraton Gateway Atlanta Airport Hotel. They directed guests upstairs to the Meet & Greet- Southern Style. While at the Meet & Greet, true Southern Hospitality was displayed by the warm hugs, conversations and more importantly, the abundance of Southern cuisine. The menu consisted of Smoked Turkey, Collard Greens, Macaroni & Cheese, Cornbread and much, much more.

While the Nobles hosted a Sip 'N Smoke on the patio, we, the classy ladies of Nabbar Court, invited everyone to participate in “Cocktails 'N Conversations”. This was indeed a great gathering, where various topics were discussed and games were played. Dt. Rosaline Moody entertained guests with a game of “Guess Who?”. All in attendance were overwhelmed with the blue, silver and white décor, the “It’s Soooooo Sweet” table of cupcakes and chocolate, wine and cheese tables and souvenirs. Door prizes ranged from accessories and grooming items to restaurant gift cards.

By night fall, we saw a transformation from 2016 to the 1920's era. The “Harlem Nights” party was an event to remember. HPC J.C. Jefferson and Dt. Treasa Dumas-Jackson welcomed everyone to “Club Nabbar”. The room was filled to capacity as the “Jazz Age” came to life and fashion was the talk of the night. Flapper dresses, Mob Boss Pin Striped suits, two tone shoes, felt hats and 3 pc suits were worn as we danced the night away. The soothing sounds of Louis Armstrong and Duke Ellington played and the crowd was entertained. The most exciting moments of “Harlem Nights” party were the screams of joy from the Black Jack and Craps tables. Although you couldn't win U.S. Currency, the $5,000 in chips made me feel like a millionaire. Friday night ended with another hospitality, in which the D3 Clown Unit served as hostess and servers at the Nacho Bar.

On Saturday afternoon, the Daughters served food and entertained guests at the cookout. Laughter filled the air as we all relaxed prior to preparing for the “Elegance on the Nile” Joint Ball.

All hailed to honor Illustrious Potentate Patrick Cook and Illustrious Commandress Cynthia Lee. The ballroom was elegantly decorated with Egyptian sculptures and table arrangements. The Daughters of Nabbar Court, led by the Divan, entered the ballroom graciously with heads held high and all smiles. OUR Commandress was escorted into the ballroom as she was indeed pleased at the hard work and dedication that was given to make the weekend a success. IC Lee thanked the entire Court, but was immediately caught off guard when Illustrious Potentate Cook entered the ballroom and escorted her to the center of the floor. The crowd was in awe as he elegantly presented her with roses. There was not a dry face in the ballroom after a heartfelt rendition of Purple Rain was played.

The weekend ended with a Chicken 'N Waffles Hospitality, plenty of gratitude and exhausted Daughters. The “Elegance on the Nile” weekend was overall nothing less than perfect.

Desert Conference/Gala Day Planning Meeting

Submitted by: Dt. Pam M. Northern

Nobles and Daughters throughout the Desert of Georgia gathered together at the Atlanta Airport Marriott in College Park for the Annual Planning Meeting for Desert Conference/Gala Day on November 4th and 5th. Al Tariq Temple No. 245 and Al Tariq Daughters Club were the hosts. The meeting with the Daughters on Friday evening was productive and well attended. It was a beautiful sight to see Daughters dressed in an array of different colored blazers and each Court dressed alike representing their Oasis. Deputy for the Desert, Dt. Sharon Lawson-Mathis, had on a white blazer, the Desert Divan was dressed in royal blue blazers, all Deputies for the Oasis had on red blazers and the Desert Assistants had on orange blazers. Our very own Deputy for the Oasis, Dt. Susan Gibson, gave the welcome.

A myriad of committee reports were given. It was announced that the 2017 charity that the Desert would support is Lupus, there are many Daughters throughout the Desert who suffer with this disease, to include, Deputy for the Desert of Georgia Dt. Sharon Lawson-Mathis. Our very own PC Vernice Scott announced that she would be running for a second term as the Imperial Internal Auditor and welcomed the support of the Desert.

On Saturday morning Nobles and Daughters gathered for the joint meeting. It was productive and well attended. Dt. Katrina Williams received the Outstanding Support Award from Deputy for the Desert, Noble James Johnson, Jr. After the joint meeting we enjoyed lunch at the hotel followed by the Creation of Al Tariq Daughters Club. HPC S. Diane White served as 1st Lt. Commandress and Dt. Pam M. Northern served as Oriental Guide for the Creation. Al Tariq Court UD had 17 ladies to be created, along with 2 from Nabbar Court 123 and 4 from Al-Karim Court 219. On Saturday evening many of us joined Al Tariq Temple No. 245 and Al Tariq Court No. UD for their First Inaugural Potentate and Commandress Ball. A great time was had by all.

Desert Conference/Gala Day 2017 will be held May 4th-6th at the Atlanta Airport Marriott in College Park. Al Tariq Temple No. 245 and Al Tariq Court No UD will serve as hosts.

5 Easy Ways to Relieve Work Stress

Written by HPC S. Diane White

Whether you work in an office, at a restaurant or on a construction site, work is always one of the major causes of stress. Small amounts of stress can sometimes be beneficial because it motivates workers to push themselves harder to reach goals, but too much stress can lead to depression and ultimately burnout if it is not properly dealt with. To avoid these feelings of overwhelming pressure and anxiety, consider trying these simple methods of reducing stress.

1. Exercise When You Can - Exercising during the workday is an excellent method of relieving stress, according to WebMD. However, this doesn't mean that you have to visit the gym or job 10 miles before work. A simple walk around the office is enough to get the blood flowing, which allows mood-boosting endorphins to be released throughout the bloodstream. This can relieve stress and allow you to return to work in a better state of mind. In addition, Health.com reports that by taking a walk outside the office during lunch hours, the vitamin D from the sunlight can actually raise your body's serotonin levels, which relieves stress. The smells, sounds and visuals also provide welcome distractions that allow people to get out of their own heads.
2. Talk About Your Feelings - If the stress of the workday is becoming unbearable, it could be time to pick up the phone to call a trusted friend or family member. According to the Mayo Clinic, sometimes the simple act of talking about stressful feelings can be helpful. In addition, the trusted person on the other end of the line could propose ideas on how to better deal with the situation. Also, once the conversation nears its conclusion, it could be a good idea to express your gratitude to the person on the other end of the phone call. Feelings of gratefulness can activate parts of the brain associated with dopamine, which also helps alleviate stress.
3. Find an Outlet-Whether it's taking your dog for a walk, writing in your journal or taking a bath each night before going to sleep, it's important to create a relaxing routine away from the stress associated with work. Some people may argue that they don't have time for these leisure activities, but setting time aside for fun events can help reduce tension, alleviate stress and avoid burnout. This allows people to be more productive when they do return to work. If you need help coming up with a hobby, WebMD suggests activities such as volunteer work, gardening or caring for pets.
4. Listen to Music - Listening to music during stressful times has many positive effects on a person's health. For starters, it can lower your blood pressure and also reduce certain hormones that are linked to stress. In addition, USA Today reports that listening to music can help improve overall sleep quality, help you eat less and reduce anxiety as much as a massage. In particular, listening to classical music can significantly help relieve stress, but if that genre isn't your cup of tea, try listening to recorded sounds of nature.

5. Drink Tea Instead of Coffee - While it's true that caffeine provides a short-term rush of energy, after the effects of coffee finally wear off, coffee can make work-related stress even worse, according to Health.com. Instead of drinking coffee, try drinking green tea. This tea only has half the amount of caffeine as a normal cup of coffee and contains thiamine, which is an amino that reduces agitation because it helps calm the nervous system.

Two of the best ways to reduce work-related stress are to eat right and get a good night's sleep, but if that still isn't enough to keep you calm and steady at work, then consider using one or more of the tips from the list above in order to alleviate that unnecessary pressure and anxiety.
