NABBAR COURT
NO. 123

Greetings Daughters of Nabbar Court No. 123.

As the 2022 year comes to an end, I must first give honor to God for all of the blessings that he has bestowed upon me. I give thanks again to the members of Nabbar Court No. 123 for electing me as the 43rd Illustrious Commandress for the 2022. I remain both humbled and honored. I offer my sincere thanks and appreciation to each of you for your support of me and dedication to Nabbar Court. Divan members, thank you for making this a wonderful year. Kudos to those that chaired, co-chaired, and/or worked on various committees. Dt. Nicole Bowen, Nabbar Court's Queen, you represented this Court with grace and style. I appreciate your fundraising efforts and hard work. Noble Mark Searcy, I know that this year has been interesting for you. Thanks for your support and for always sticking around until every Daughter was safe in their vehicle.

Nabbar Court, we should be committed to continue the effort to preserve the ideals of this organization and at the same time welcome new and innovative ideas. As we move into the new year, I pray that we have mutual respect from old and new members, embrace innovative ideas, work together in harmony by building better working relationships, become more involved with the community service efforts, offer more support to our Youth Group, and continue to partner with Nabbar Temple No. 128 for events. Remember, the success of one is the success of all – we are NABBAR!

Purposely Enhancing our Affiliation through Charity and Education

In September, Nabbar Court lost a jewel, Dt. Paula Seay, Life Member. Her memories will forever be with us. From September to December 2022, Nabbar Court No. 123 Daughters worked diligently in the Metro-Atlanta area by way of community service.

On September 20th, Dt. Shaunta Rutherford and I visited the CHRIS180 to deliver Welcome Home Kits, filled with all items needed to assist anyone transitioning into an apartment. Daughters donated pots, pans, curtains, blankets, toiletry items, and more. The agency was excited to receive such a large donation. The month of October was full of great events. We enjoyed the Youth Group Flowerbed planting, Morris Brown HBCU Donation, Voter Registration Drive at Crestview Rehabilitation Center, Morehouse College Tailgating, and the Sherry Foster Breast Cancer Awareness Strike Out Bowling event.

“Be thankful for what you have; you'll end up having more.” November started with the Court's PEACE Retreat in Blue Ridge. Thanks to HPIC Denise Mundy for her efforts to make the event a success. Dt. Kiema Mosley spearheaded the National Diabetes Sunday Church Visitation at Flipper Temple AME Church on November 13th. Dt. Loretta Graham-Pennington showed us that children really are our future. On November 21st, the Youth Group visited Ready, Set, Go Daycare Center and showered them with donations. Dt. Shaunta Rutherford and the Community Service committee made us brave the cold weather at the Thanksgiving Feed the Homeless event. We fed over 150 individuals and the conversations with those less fortunate proved that our work was appreciated.

December 1 – 4, 2022, Nabbar Court made donations to various organizations. Thank you Nabbar Court No. 123 for your donations to Breast Cancer Awareness ($500.00 to Bald Nation Rocks Against Cancer and $500.00 to The Center for Black Women's Wellness Breast Cancer program); Military Daughters Committee ($200.00 to Recovery Consultants of Atlanta); National Community Health Initiative Committee ($750.00 to Diabetes Association of Atlanta); and the Community Service committee (Salvation Army Angel Tree donations).

Throughout the 2022, there have been Daughters that have supported me as the Illustrious Commandress and were dedicated to Nabbar Court No. 123 without wavering. This is not to discount anything that any of the Daughters have done this year. Maya Angelou once said, “I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel.” A major thanks go to following Daughters for your hard work, support, and dedication during the 2022 year:

Past Illustrious Commandress of the Year – Past Commandress Jacqueline McCoy
Shining Star – Dt. Loretta Graham-Pennington
Daughter of the Year – Dt. Kiema Mosley

Daughters, remember, we are stronger together than we are alone. In closing, I must stress that with the uncertainties of the world, it is time to mend differences, heal wounds, rekindle broken relationships, and re-establish strained friendships. Congratulations to the 44th Illustrious Commandress, Dt. Rosaline Moody, and the entire 2023 Divan.

"If you continue in your faith, established and firm, and do not move from the hope held out in the gospel. This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant."

I pray that every member of Nabbar Court No. 123 remembers the words spoken when they stopped at the various stations within the Court Room during their creation, as well as the Oath of Obligation recited. These are more than just words on paper, they are life's lessons and prepared plans. Thanks for supporting my vision this year, which was P.E.A.C.E. – Purposely Enhancing our Affiliation through Charity and Education. I wish each of you a safe and enjoyable holiday season surrounded by family, friends, and loved ones. Merry Christmas, Happy Kwanzaa, and Happy New Year!

Yours in the Faith,

Getting Back to Basics

"The only way you can stay on top is to Remember to touch bottom and get back to basics"
Shane Black

I hope that "Atlanta" - "Georgia" is on your mind as we close 2022, I emphatically hear the words of Ray Charles singing whirling in my head, " Georgia Is On Mind ". It's an election year and our communities are coming together to impact change in Georgia by encouraging the black community to get out and vote. Nabbar Court participated in voting activities in Atlanta and surrounding counties in Georgia to put the word out. Congratulations to Senator Raphael Warnock and to all the Daughters who educated and exercised their right to vote!!!!

Celebrating each other, making an impact in the community and giving back is what Nabbar does best. What a great tribute to life and love as we celebrated survivors at our Annual Sherry Foster Annual Breast Cancer recognition, "Strike Out Breast Cancer" - bowling event which raised funds to support Bald Nation Rocks Against Breast Cancer and The Center for Black Women's Wellness with donations totaling $1000.00. Representatives from both organizations received their contributions at our November monthly meeting. I commend the great works of the Community Service Committee and the court on making donations to the Diabetes Association, Recovery Consultants of Atlanta, Angel Tree and fighting the elements to feed the hungry on the street of Auburn Avenue in downtown Atlanta during the holiday season. Nabbar or Nothing!!!!

As I close, I would be remiss if I didn't highlight the visibility of our youth in the community this year under the leadership of Dt. Loretta Graham Pennington (Directress) and her team. It was such a joy to share love with the Youth Group at the Egyptian Tea and during Christmas time at their toy drive to collect gifts for children in need. Great job Nabbar Youth Group!

As we move to the new year let's continue to recapture our traditions in our court and get back to the basics, work together in P.E.A.C.E. as leaders of the organization and strive daily to be kind and positive, while maintaining the UNIQUENESS in YOU!!

Nabbar Court lost a true gem and lifetime member, Dt. Paula Seay on September 22, 2022. She faithfully served the Court in various capacities until her health declined. The Court is grateful for the time we shared with Dt. Seay. We will miss her words of wisdom, her love for Nabbar Court, and her friendship.

NABBAR 123 SPOTLIGHT: NABBAR COURT YOUTH GROUP

Written by Dt. Loretta Graham-Pennington

The Nabbar Court Youth Group had a fun, exciting, and creative day playing in the dirt on October 16, 2022. The young ladies experienced creating their very own flower beds. They chose a special spot at the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand East (7340 Old National Highway, Riverdale, GA) and went to work on the project.

The Youth had an opportunity to choose a special spot in front of the Grand East, thanks to Most Worshipful Grand Master Primus James, who happens to also be a Past Illustrious Potentate from Nabbar Temple No. 128.

The flower bed was developed using a variety of colorful Pansies, saving room for a personalized sign. The Youth were super excited to see their finished work and they are patiently waiting for the Spring, so they can see the beautiful bright colors.

It was a vision of the Youth Group Directress, Dt. Loretta Graham-Pennington, along with the Illustrious Commandress to have a Dedicated area at the Grand East for the Nabbar Youth Group. It was with great excitement for us all when HPIC Timolin D. Jefferson, Imperial Deputy for the Oasis, joined us to assist the youth.

Nice. Amazing. Beautiful. Brilliant. Adorable. Respectable.

“A child is a beam of sunlight from the Infinite and Eternal, with possibilities of virtue and vice, but as yet unstained.” — Lyman Abbott, American Congregationalist minister

On November 21, 2022, Nabbar Court Youth Group visited the Ready, Set, Go Learning Center in Union City, GA. The Youth Group President, Lacie Lattimore, and Vice-President, Aniya Jackson, led the group around the grounds of the Learning Center. All hands were on deck as the Youth Group sorted through a plethora of items (Kleenex, Paper Towels, Disinfectant Wipes, Onesies, Pull-Ups, Glue, Glue Sticks, Construction Paper, Makers, Crayons, and Hand Sanitizer).

The owner, Erica Wilbern, was very appreciative of the donated items and thanked the Youth for their services. She expressed that they were doing a great service to the underprivileged children that are enrolled at the center.

Nabbar Court Youth Group continues to complete community service in the Metro Atlanta area and is excited about their last event of the year. They will gather at Urban Air to exchange gifts with one another. The Youth decided to bring an additional gift to donate to a child in need. 2022 has been a fun-filled year with the Youth Group and the support from the Daughters of Nabbar Court No. 123 has been amazing.

Outside of being a student-athlete, Nazari has continued her community service efforts by volunteering and participating in several service projects within and outside of campus. Most recently, she participated in the Alpha Alpha Nu Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Incorporated annual "Sleepout for the Homeless".
